

Name: _____ Date: _____ Time: _____

A Place for Frogs Nonfiction Text Features Match

Text features help you understand a text. Read the name of each text feature included in A Place for Frogs in the left-hand column. Then, find the correct definition in the right-hand column. Write the letter of the correct definition next to each text feature.

- |                       |                                                                                     |
|-----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Bibliography _____ | A. This text helps reader learn more about the topic.                               |
| 2. Close-up _____     | B. This large type contains the most important information in the book.             |
| 3. Diagram _____      | C. Gives readers visual geographic clues that help readers know where animals live. |
| 4. Heading _____      | D. Helps readers understand how the author gathered the book's information.         |
| 5. Main Text _____    | E. Helps readers see details in something small.                                    |
| 6. Maps _____         | F. Gives readers clues about what he or she will learn from the text.               |
| 7. Text Box _____     | G. Gives readers additional visual information and is often labeled.                |