

Imagine an Animal

Draw an imaginary animal that would have no trouble surviving on the hottest days of the year. They should think about its size, color, type of body covering, number of legs, and where it lives.